Food, Friends, and Fun

Date and location to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the group and instructor

Are you and a few friends looking for a unique culinary experience? Spend the day with one of our cooks in a historic museum kitchen! Choose a type of cooking (open-hearth, brick oven or cast iron stove) or a theme (such as preparing a noon meal, making breads or baking pies). We can accommodate groups of 6-10 participants from ages 16 to adult; dates are generally available on weekdays in early May and late October, most Mondays and some weekends during the museum's regular season. Please contact Maria Neale at (585) 538-6822 ext. 216 to discuss details.
