

GENESEE COUNTRY VILLAGE & MUSEUM GINGERBREAD HOUSE CONTEST RULES 2010

1. Fill out the entry form and return it to Genesee Country Village by 5 p.m. Wednesday, November 22, 2010 by mail, hand delivery or email info to: dbraun@gcv.org .
2. All contest entries must arrive at Genesee Country Village between November 28 and December 2. Entries may be dropped off Nov. 28 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the week. Entries must remain on display at County Village & Museum from December 3 through December 17, 2010. Genesee Country Village reserves the right not to exhibit entries deemed inappropriate, or those that deteriorate.
3. The entire display must be mounted on a ½" or ¾" plywood base 18"x18". None can exceed 2 feet in height. Include a 3x5 card with your name, address, telephone number, email and category entered along with your entry.
4. The entire display, except for the base, must be made of edible materials. Styrofoam and other non-edible support materials are not permitted. Entries must be constructed mainly of gingerbread; unwrapped candy and other edible material may also be used. Gingerbread "houses" must be of a Genesee Country Village structure. This may include the gazebo, Tom and Mike's barn and pasture or any structure within the village. "Edible" items include candies, nuts, cereal, crackers, pasta, and any other edible food item that does not include a wrapper, stick or other non-edible material.
5. The competition is open to everyone. Gingerbread house kits may be used. For those entering the individual categories, the design, construction and decoration must be done solely by the entrant.
