Event Eligibility & Application Process
All merchants interested in vending at Genesee Country Village & Museum’s event described above must complete the accompanying application and will be accepted at the discretion of GCV&M.

Eligibility: GCV&M will accept or decline vendor participation and reserves the right to restrict sale of specific items from vendors at our events.
- Goods available for sale must align with the event theme and must be compatible with GCV&M’s mission. GCV&M policy prohibits partisanship and discrimination against all legally protected classes including, but not limited to: race, color, sex, age, disability, religion, citizenship, national origin, ancestry, military status or veteran status, marital status, familial status, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, status as a victim of domestic violence or sex offenses, predisposing genetic characteristic and genetic information, and any other status protected by law.
Priority will be given to prior vendors in good standing with GCV&M.

If the event is a multi-day event, priority will be given to vendors requesting to participate in all days.

Vendors are encouraged to provide photographs of displays and merchandise; vendors may also elect to send samples; however, samples will not be returned.

While unable to guarantee exclusivity, we try to avoid duplication among selected vendors.

Process: Submission of this application does not guarantee participation in the event.

- Email the vendor application, as indicated, to GCV&M and we will confirm receipt.
- Review of your application may take up to two weeks.
- GCV&M will notify all applicants whether or not they are accepted to join the event as a vendor.
- If accepted, vendors will receive an invoice for the vendor fee to be remitted prior to the event; failure to remit the vendor fee prior to the event may result in forfeiture of your approved space.

Spaces
All spaces are pre-assigned and located in high traffic areas. Vendor set-up and breakdowns times and additional instructions will be provided once vendor fee is received; vendors may not arrive after or leave prior to designated set-up and breakdown times. Admission for a maximum of (3) sales personnel per day will be provided. Vendors and personnel are welcome to participate in the day’s activities; however, booths should be staffed at all times. Spaces may not be sublet without written consent from GCV&M.

Insurance / Permits
Vendors are independent entities and as such are liable for all applicable insurance. GCV&M is not responsible for damage to vendor property or displays. Event attendees, volunteers, and vendors have no claims against GCV&M should they be injured as the result of vendor displays or products. Vendors giving away or selling food or beverages are responsible for meeting all county/state licensing requirements and obtaining appropriate permits. GCV&M reserves the right to inspect vendor licenses and permits as a condition of participation.

Media & Promotions
This event will be promoted via GCV&M’s website (https://www.gcv.org/events), and via our Facebook and Twitter accounts. If you use social media, please follow us and help us promote this event (@gcvmuseum). GCV&M will take photographs and videos during the festival for future promotional efforts. Vendors consent to the use of these likenesses.

Cancellation
GCV&M’s events (unless otherwise indicated) are held in all weather conditions except the most severe. No refunds will be given due to the cancellation of the event by an act of God, local authorities, or a weather-related incident. This agreement may not be modified or cancelled except by mutual consent in writing by both the vendor and GCV&M. Notice of cancellation on the part of the vendor must be made in writing. Cancellations 30 days in advance will be given a full refund. Cancellations 15-29 days in advance will be refunded 50% of the vendor fee. No refunds will be made less than 15 days prior to the event.
