WEDDINGS IN THE HISTORIC VILLAGE

Brooks Grove Church

Brooks Grove Church overlooks the Village Square.

This beautifully simple Greek Revival church was built in 1844 in the quiet hamlet of Brooks Grove, NY. Over a century and a half later, the clean lines of this large sanctuary provide a lovely setting for weddings of all sizes and styles.

Amenities of this site include:

- Seating for 175 guests
- A double aisle for a dramatic entrance and exit
- An 1880 pump organ that is still available for use
 - The choir loft/balcony at the back is an ideal location from which your musicians and vocalist can fill the sanctuary with music
- The church bell can be rung to announce that your new life has begun

Brooks Grove Churchyard

With Brooks Grove Church as a backdrop, surrounded by its historic white fence, the stone walkway creates a center aisle in an outdoor setting.

Amenities of this site include:

- Chairs are included to accommodate 250 guests
- An alternate indoor setting is available in the case of inclement weather
- Handicapped-Accessible

St. Feehan's Church

St. Feehan's is nestled on the corner of the Historic Village. This church was built in 1854 in Chili, NY. Now 150+ years later, the intimate chapel is available for ceremonies of all denominations.

Amenities of this site include:

- Seating for 125 guests
- A chapel setting that glows with beautiful hand-crafted woodwork
- A traditional center aisle
- An original reed pump organ that is still available for use
- A gated churchyard for your guests to gather
- The church bell can be rung to announce that your new life has begun

Livingston-Backus Porch

The Livingston-Backus House, built in the early 1800's in Rochester, NY, is one of the most popular houses at Genesee Country Village & Museum. Its porch provides the perfect backdrop for your ceremony and photos. A picturesque white fence makes for a dramatic entrance down the walkway, leading to front and side entrances for the bride and bridesmaids.

Amenities of this site include:

- Chairs are included to accommodate 250 guests
- Handicapped-Accessible

Livingston-Backus Gardens

Nestled in the beautiful and picturesque formal garden behind the grand Livingston-Backus House, you and your fiancé will stand under the pergola to pronounce your love for one another.
