FIDDLE & FOLK FESTIVAL AT GENESEE COUNTRY VILLAGE & MUSEUM SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, AUGUST 15 AND 16

WHAT: The annual Fiddle & Folk Festival at Genesee Country Village & Museum is a lively weekend that brings together performers, craftspeople, and music lovers for an immersive celebration of heritage and sound. With musical performances across five stages, jam sessions that welcome musicians at all levels, storytelling, dancing, and instrument crafting, there is something for everyone looking to explore New York State's musical roots and vibrant future.

Here are just a few of the highlights:

- Saturday headliners Richie & Rosie, and a lineup of more than two dozen acts.
- Performances all day Saturday and Sunday, from the Great Meadow and throughout the Historic Village, as professional musicians, passionate amateurs, and students at the start of the music journey take the stage.
- Live demonstrations of instrument crafting using traditional techniques and materials.
- The “Slow Jam” space, for a relaxed, beginner-friendly environment to learn and make music together.
- Dancers and callers who invite you to move to the music, whether you already know the steps or just feel the rhythm.
- All student musicians receive FREE admission.
- Plus so much more!

Thank you to our event sponsor, WRUR Rochester “The Route” 88.5FM.
